~~Social Norms Misconceptions~~ Misperceptions Training

- Overview
- Meghan, Ali, and PRC gave feedback on the training and a synopsis.
- The training was extremely useful for coalition work and focused on how to use the correct messaging in prevention work.
- Often the use of scare tactics and health terrorism can be more harmful and give the perception that more people are participating in risky behaviors than in reality.

Bills Yearbook

- Add Ideas: potentially utilize the social norms training and apply it to our CLYDE Survey results.
- Potentially use a QR code to direct people to either our website, Facebook, or more resources/information
- 1/8th of a page
- Preliminary idea-due May 22nd- this date was extended to August 21st which gives us enough time to use our CLYDE data and new logo/name

East Aurora Music Festival-June 10th

- Activity ideas for youth:
 - Brittany: cardboard instruments
 - Krista: has a pin maker-we could have youth make pins
 - Butterfly out of coffee filters and clothes pins
 - Krista: a game where you play part of the song and have to come up with the next verse/line
- 1-5pm

Orchard Park Post Prom

- Bounce House- the coalition is funding a bounce house for OP post prom- this is an opportunity for Seniors to celebrate prom in a safe, substance free environment.
- ~~Cotton Candy Machine~~

Logo

The winner from Orchard Park High School received a $50 gift card! Their logo will be used to create a new coalition logo.
