Youth Mental Health First Aid

- Two trainings have been completed, trying to get involved in both OP and another one is scheduled for March 15th
- Idea to get the coalition members trained.
- Go into the community centers and offer training to staff and others who are interested in attending, spread the word.

CADCA National Forum

- Meghan traveled to DC for the CADCA national forum.
- We were able to talk to some youth from West Virginia to see how they were able to get youth involved. Want to bring that into our schools and have them be able to develop their own projects as well.

Movie Night-CANCELED

- Everything was all set for it, but there was a severe lack of student sign up
- To combat the lack of involvement, some of the staff from WS and OP suggested that the coalition does more in-school involvement to get the word out and try to work toward more events.
 - Field day, family nights, other activities in both middle and high schools
- Incentives for those who attend the bigger event.

Youth Summit

- April 14th, 9am to 1pm
- Creating the Youth Summit committee-Krista, Victoria, Jess, Amanda, Ashley, Colleen, Mikayla, Kristen
- Ed offered the Community Center as the meeting location for the committee
- Continuing to reach out to some potential Keynote speakers- sports psychologist, James Brand, Karl Shallowhorn
- Capping schools that do not involve WS and OP at 2 students per grade level per building.
